

Quality & Environmental Policy

“Danfoss Turbocor Compressors is dedicated to leading through innovation and to satisfying our customers with the best quality, value, & on time delivery of high efficiency oil-free centrifugal compressors. We are committed to controlling our impact on the environment demonstrated through setting goals focused on continual improvement and complying with all relevant legislation, regulation and other requirements to protect the environment.”